On Monday the Mass of Chrism was celebrated here. Close to 1100 people from all parishes in the Diocese were present. Our parish servers and music ministers are always at their best in their roles as they are each Sunday. At one point in the celebration I caught myself looking up at the ceiling and walls of our beautiful cathedral and wondered what feelings I would have if our cathedral burned. Like many, it is difficult to grasp the damaged state of beautiful Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris. It is 625 years older than our loved St. Peter's. However, what matters most continues for countless Parisians. They, like us, the people who are called the Church, will still gather to pray and experience God's presence in the beauty of their lives.

What a wonderful day and season we are given to celebrate at Easter! To everyone - those who have come home to visit family and friends, parishioners, and visitors - welcome to St. Peter's Cathedral Basilica.

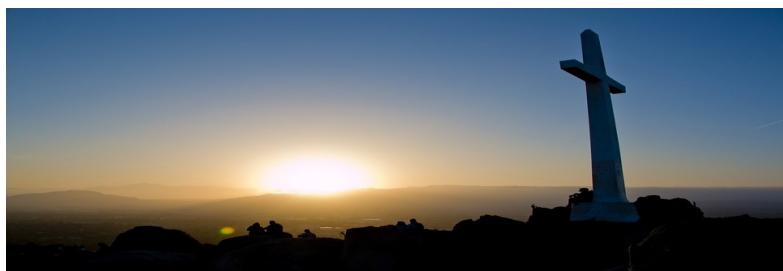

Along the spiritual journey we travel, we make every attempt to move our faith from words to action. We are not always successful but we try. Faith will always survive and its lived experience takes many forms. The story of the Resurrection is kept alive by our witness and sharing of it, assuring us that what we celebrate is not merely a past event but a reality that is continually unfolding. Just as Jesus' resurrection from the dead assured us of our own, so whenever it would appear that hopelessness, darkness and helplessness exist, we are reminded that Jesus has gone before us and will bring us new vision.

We are called to die and rise daily. Sometimes we choose to stay in death and sometimes we rise to new life as we change our selfishness into self-giving, letting anxiety and fear change to hope when we reach out to those in need. There are countless examples we will experience of coming to live more fully in the presence of Jesus, risen from the dead.

Easter is a time to renew ourselves in living the life we received at Baptism. We have been invited into a loving union with the Risen Jesus. May our desire to live in this way cause us to be examples to the world of the love and hope Jesus wants everyone to experience.

On behalf of Bishop Fabbro and the cathedral staff, I wish you a Blessed Easter.

Fr. Jim Mockler
